

The Adult Day Training program (ADT) is a daily program that provides each individual with goals based on Person Centered Planning. The program provides both functional academic and vocational training skills. Moreover, individuals learn job skills that can prepare them for community based employment.