

In 1973, MACtown opened the doors of its Intermediate Care Facility (ICF). This residential facility houses fifty-six developmentally disabled adults, where they are taught daily living and social skills necessary for succeeding in society. All of our residents work in the community or attend Adult Day Training Programs.