

Supported Employment services help individuals with developmental disabilities to overcome barriers in the community that prevent them from being gainfully employed.